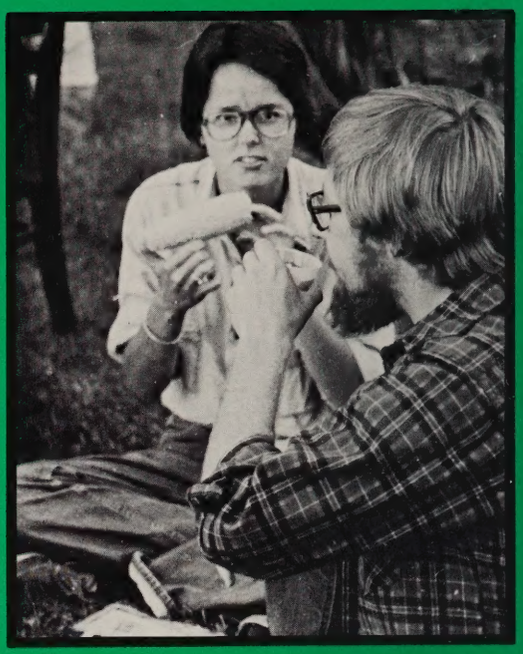
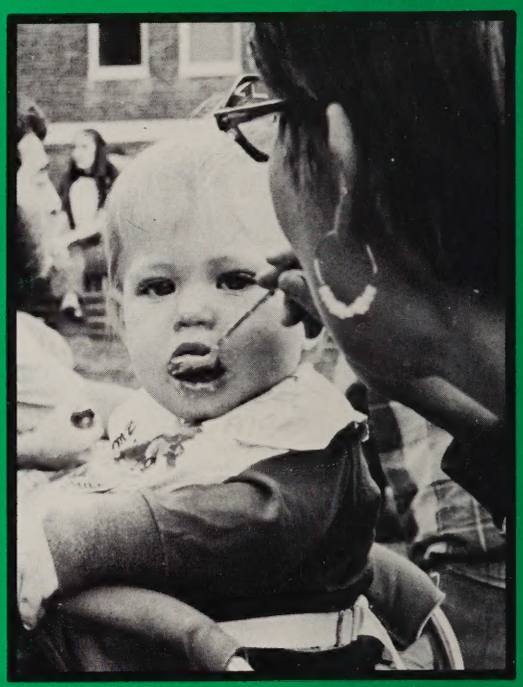
Nil sine numine, nothing without guidance
Nil sine numine, nothing without guidance.
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Laud and praise we sing to thee,
All thy daughters adore thee
All thy daughters adore thee.

Lamp for light and star so bright,
Lead us onward through the night;
Book of knowledge and the key
This our seal of V.I.C.

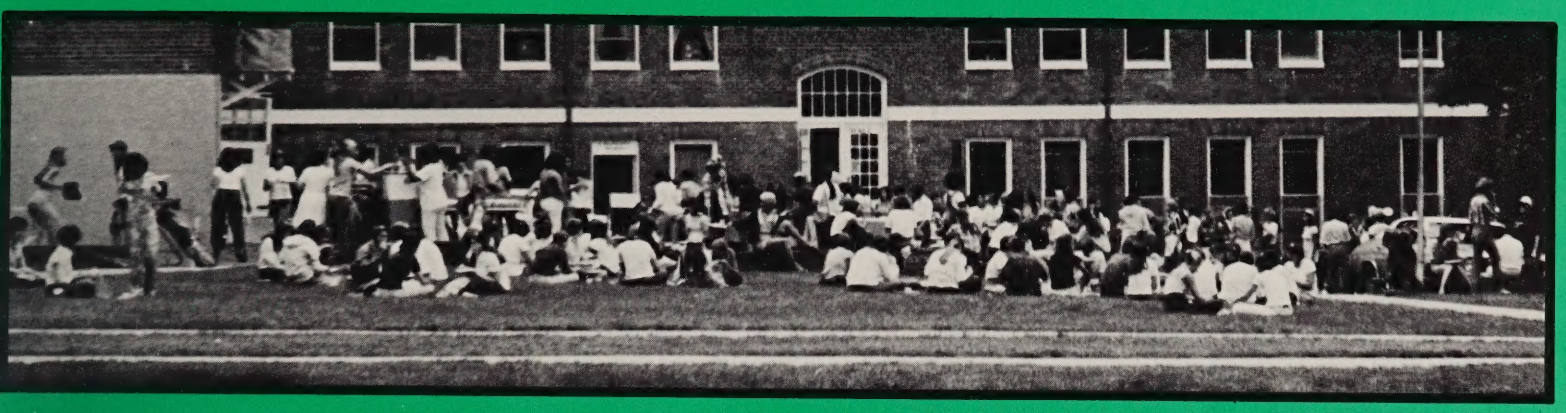
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Laud and praise we sing to thee,
All thy daughters adore thee
All thy daughters adore thee.

Over 200 apprehensive freshmen arrived August 28th not knowing exactly what to expect. This year more men enrolled than ever before and joined our previously all-woman campus. The freshmen bought their beanies and were told to wear them throughout the week. The upperclassmen returned the next day to familiar faces and old friends. After two weeks, the freshmen and transfer students were allowed to change roommates. Posters went up, curtains and bedspreads were coordinated, and the rooms began to look like home. Parking stickers were given to those lucky enough to have a car, and the parking spaces at the top were fought over. ID pictures were taken and they were again required in order to eat in the cafeteria. "May I see your ID, or sign this paper."

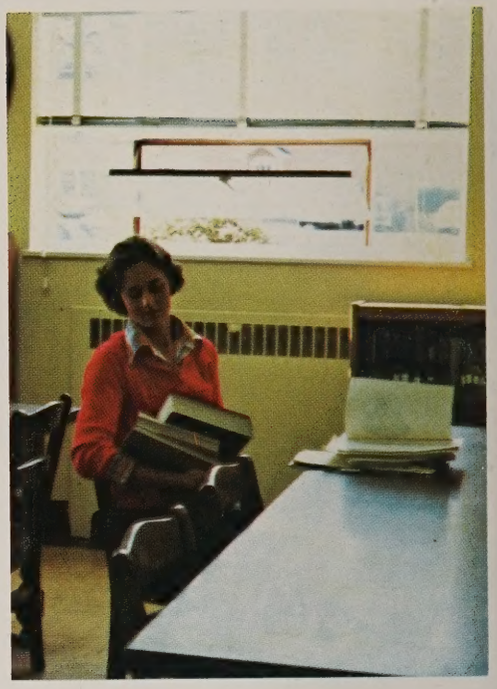




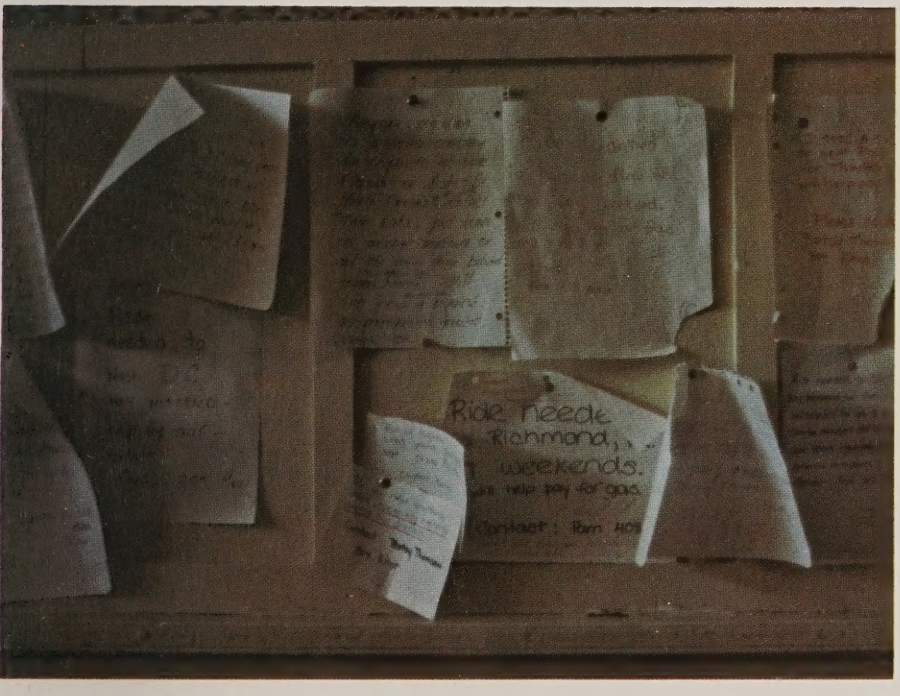
Registration was held with freshmen rushing around in order to get their classes. "What do you mean the class is closed?" Summer was over and for the freshmen and transfer students, life at VI had just begun. Look again. VIC books were made by the old VICS and given to the new VICS. The books were finished in time for AA picnic. The upperclass PE majors fell to defeat in the annual tug-of-war. The sign-out system was explained to the freshmen, and it was abolished for the upperclassmen. The Junior class won the talent show for the best skit for the second year in a row. The 1976-77 school year brought in the closing of the bicentennial year and an election year. Ford won the mock election held by the Cauldron. Ford and Carter stickers and buttons were seen everywhere. Class officers were elected and the classes began planning activities. The sophomore class faced the task of putting on the Christmas dance. After much searching, a place was found to hold the dance. H2O and Orchesis try-outs were held and work began for the winter show.



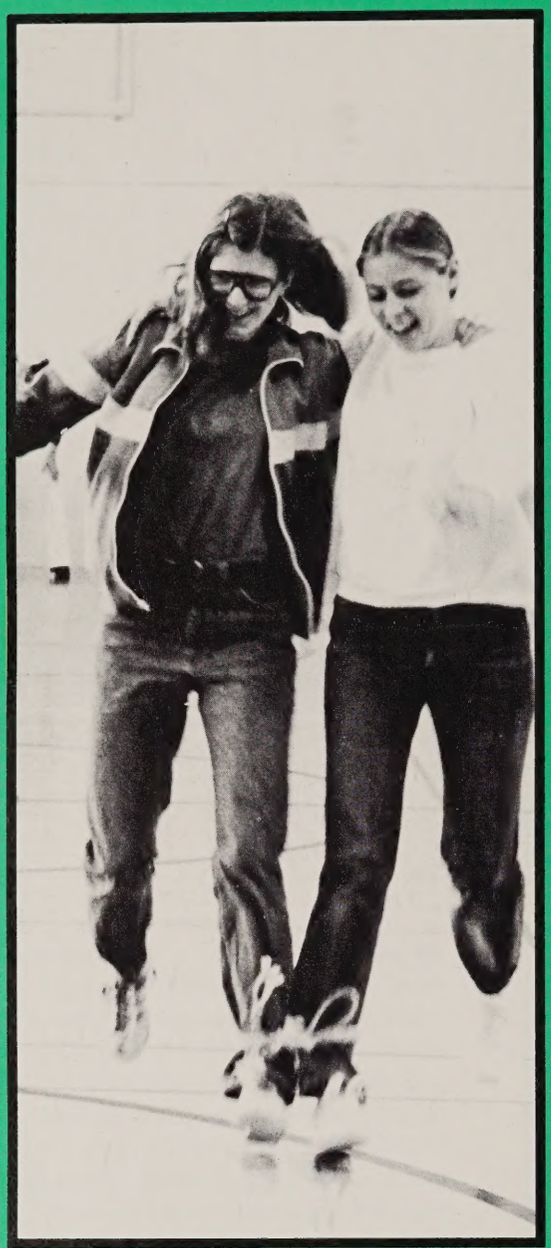
I'M ONLY HERE FOR THE BEER!

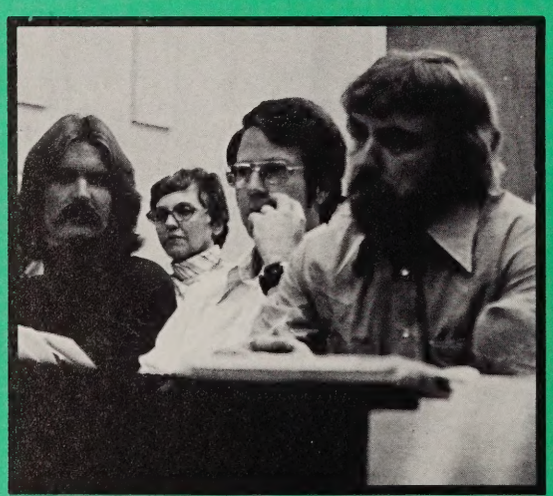


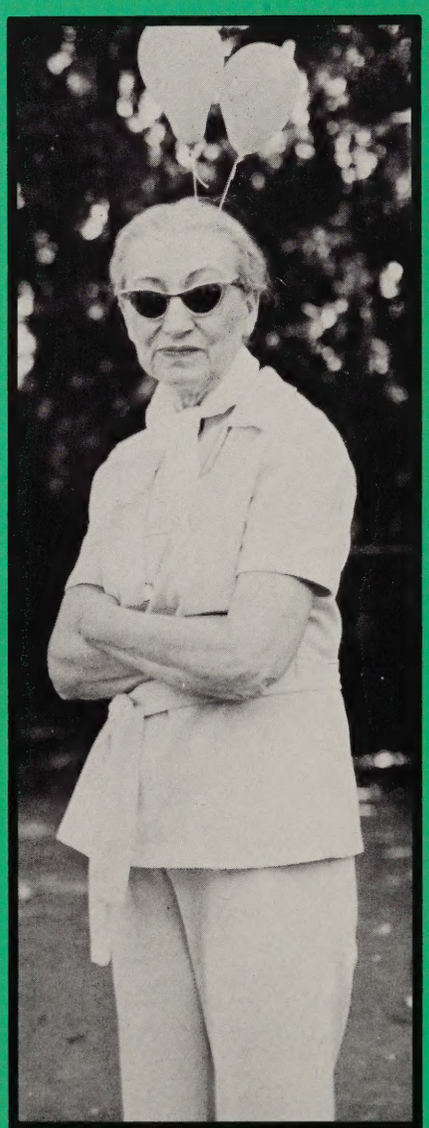
The old horse ring was finally converted into a field and the PE classes took advantage of it. The men were given a dressing room in the pool. The day care center was moved from the basement of Intermont dorm, and the addition of a pool table and a TV turned it into a lounge. A new security guard joined the forces here at VI. Washing machines went up to 35¢. What a hassle! SGA switched its meeting time to Wednesday from Tuesday nights. The idea of buying the teams warm-up suits brought discussion on the school color. A new committee was formed to help improve our buildings and grounds. Yes, things are changing. Look again. The new students got a taste of a VI mixer and they soon learned what a pistol was. They grew to fear Interdorm. The first day of football intramurals brought out a large crowd, but participation went steadily downhill as the intramural program moved on. Class rings were ordered. The Junior class dubbed VI with a new nickname, the University of VI. Week-ends brought out the suitcases and trips to Tech, UVA, Carolina and other colleges.

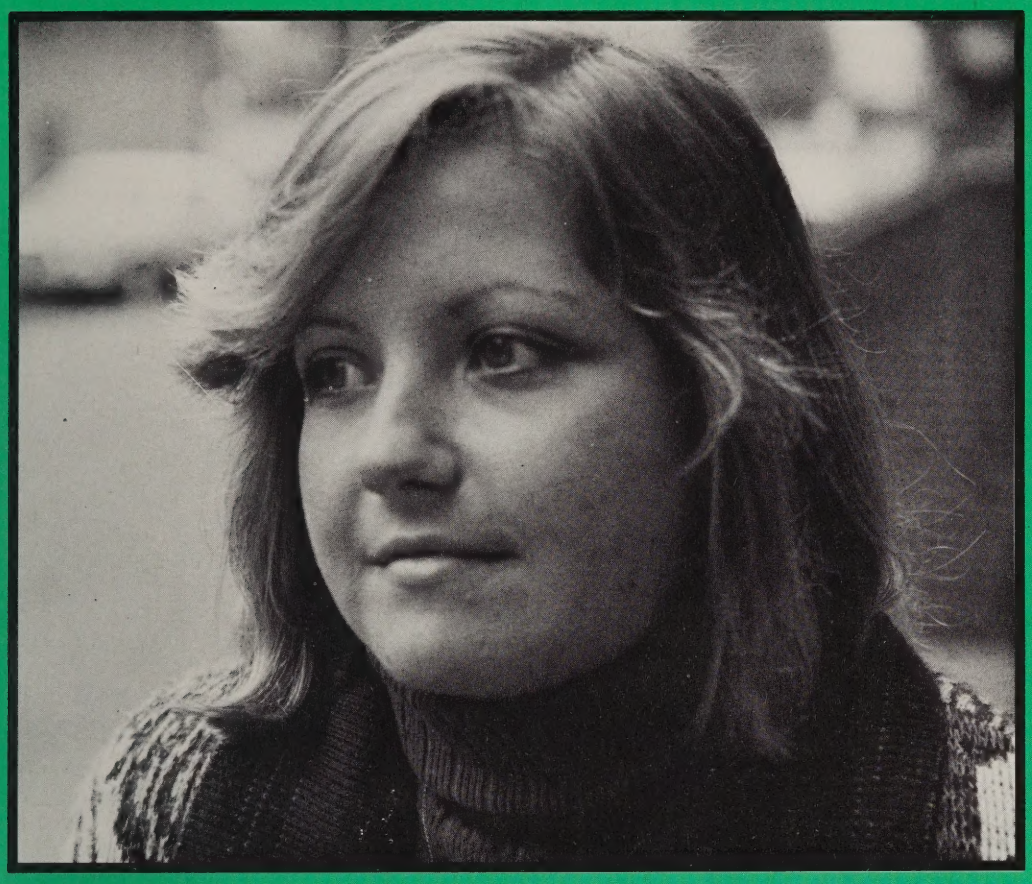


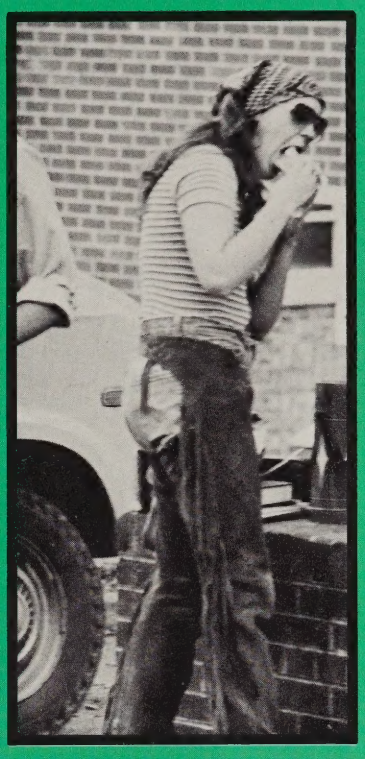
After an indian summer, rain and more rain, Bristol was finally hit by cold weather and by November it looked like it was here to stay. Everyone prepared for the coldest in years. It wasn't long before the freshmen and transfer students joined the upperclassmen as patrons of Ohlees and Foxfire. Remember the 8:00 classes the following morning or the nights you wish you could remember? A masquerade party was held at Ohlees on Halloween. The annual VI Halloween dinner was held early this year with a buffet. Halloween week-end also brought the Alumni back. It was also a week-end for VI to celebrate, as we were designated by the United States Senate as a Bicentennial College. The H2O club performed four numbers from their last year's show. An "Everything Goes" contest was held with the freshmen winning this, too. A flea market was set up in the gym. Classes were cancelled Thursday, so over 100 girls left for home by that evening.

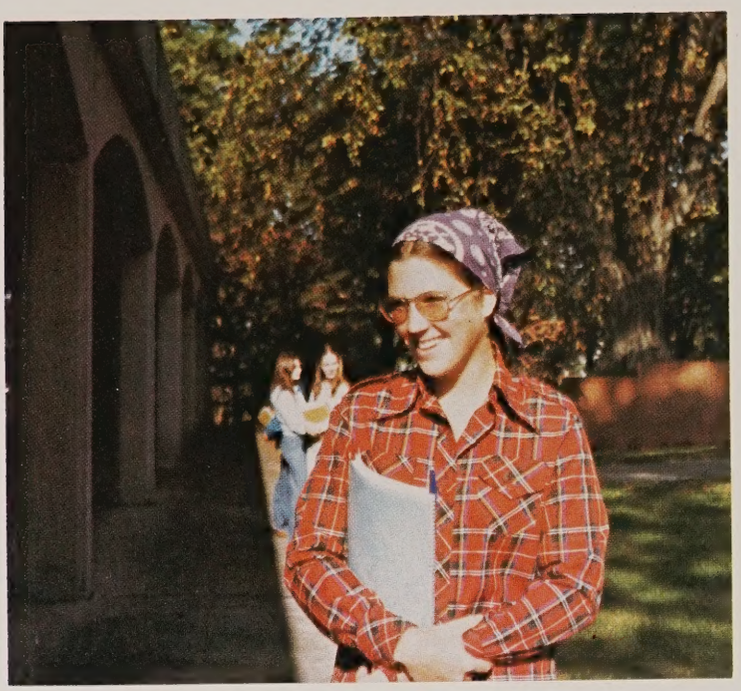


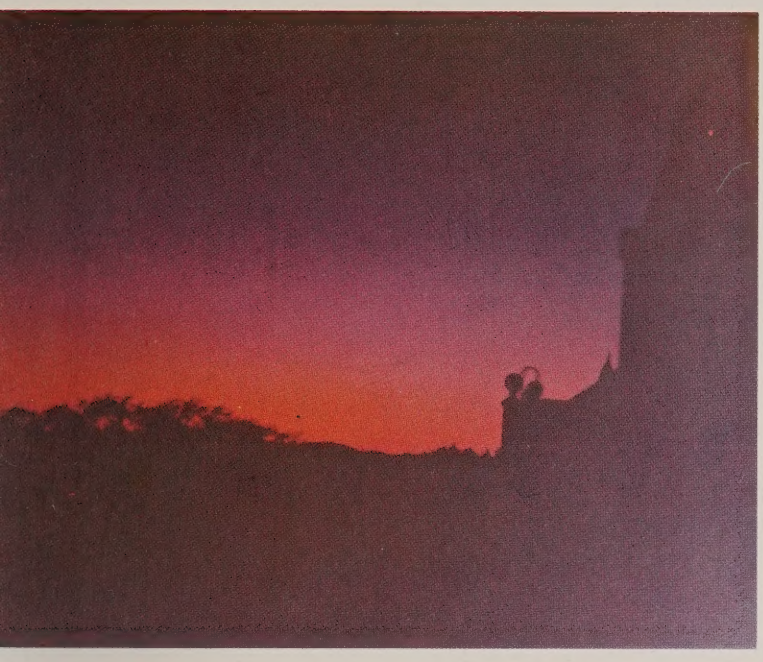












Election day came; what a nice feeling to be able to vote! The basketball team was chosen and practice began. Girls who played on both the volleyball and basketball teams were worn out after long hours of practice. The long-awaited first break came at Thanksgiving. Few students stayed at school during the break. Student returned the following Sunday anxious to tell their friends about their visit home. Snow court elections were held and a queen was chosen. The dance was held at the Holiday Inn. For some, dinner preceeded the dance, and for all, an extended curfew. Studying began for exams. Students took off for their Christmas break as soon as they finished their last exam.

MEMORIES . . .

Remember the good-byes as you left for Christmas? For the Freshmen, half a year of college had been completed, and the seniors left knowing that when they returned they would only have one semester left. Look again.

We've only just begun to live,
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.
And yes, we've just begun.

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose
We start our walking and learn to run.
And yes, we've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day
Together.

And when the evening comes we smile,
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow,
And yes, we've just begun.

We need to feel more
to understand others.
We need to love more
to be loved back.
We need to cry more
to cleanse ourselves.
We need to laugh more
to enjoy ourselves.
We need to see more
other than our own little fantasies.
We need to hear more
and listen to the needs of others.
We need to give more
and take less.
We need to look more and realize that we are not so different from one another.
We need to create a world where
Everyone can peacefully live the life they choose.

V. I. Celebrates

That, in essence, is why Virginia Intermont College is rolling out the red carpet for its friends, its alumni, its students, its faculty and administration, and anyone else who cares to join in the occasion - V.I. Celebrates.

Ninety-two years as an educational institution . . . weathering the ups and downs and storms and edens of nearly a century . . . adopting to the times, and most importantly to the needs for diversified education.

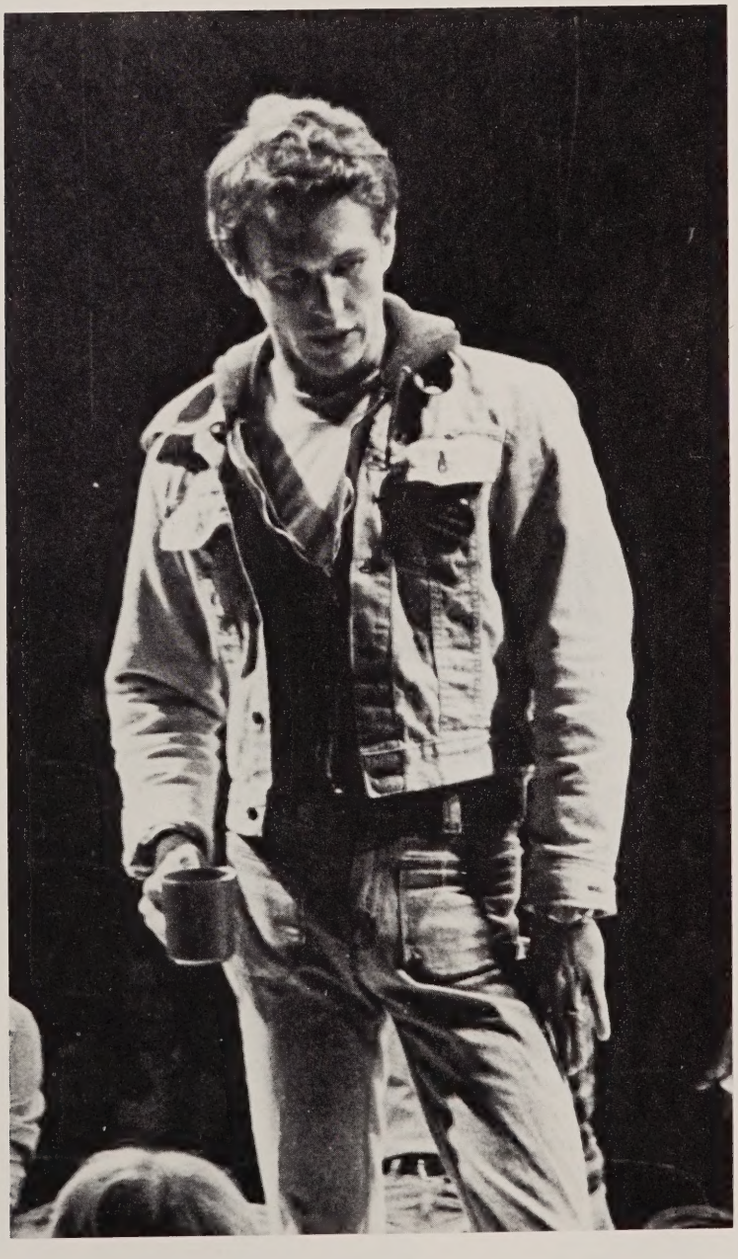
Alumnae Weekend

The Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra

Alumnae returned to campus for a flurry of activities on October 30, including a luncheon, reunions, and performances by the symphony, the drama department and H_2O Club.

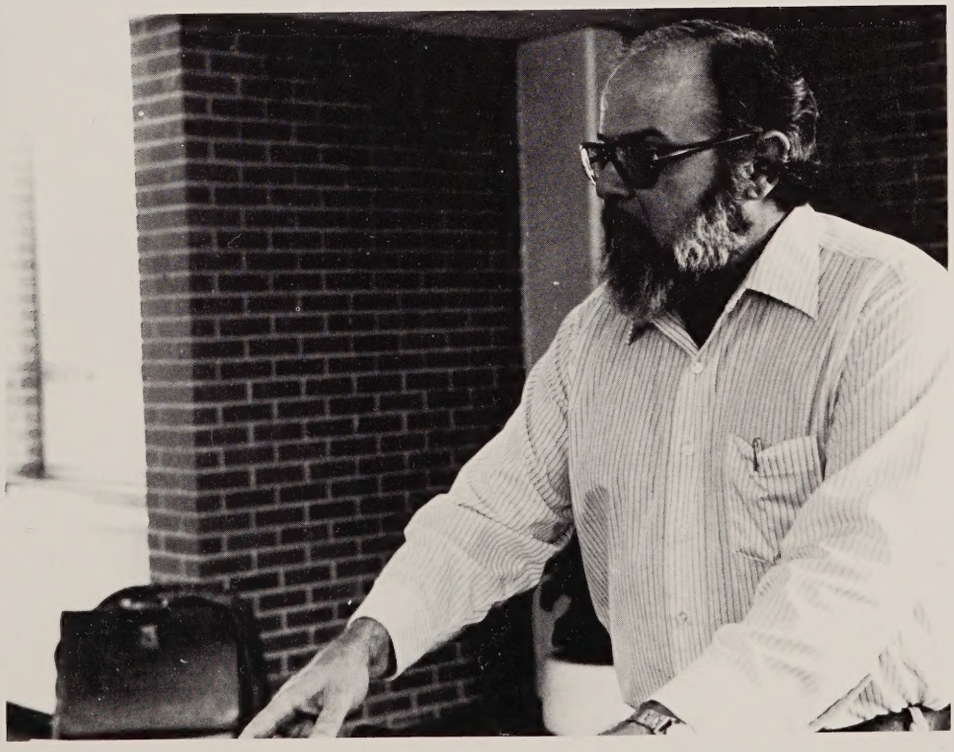


Movie and television star David Berenger conducted seminars in acting careers and improvisation techniques, as well as serving as adjudicator of high school one-act plays.

"VI Celebrates" began October 28 with a day of activities for the V.I. "family" - faculty, staff and students. Among these activities was "Almost anything goes." A team from each class, and a team consisting of faculty participated.

Mrs. Constance's "World of Fashion" class put on a fashion show for the many visitors.

A basketball workshop featured Kay Yow, North Carolina State University women's coach, demonstrating basketball techniques for some of the 475 high school students who "celebrated" with us.



The English department hosted Hale Chatfield, assistant professor of English at Hiram (Ohio) College, who instructed in poetry writing and teaching.

David Bremer, assistant professor of photography at Virginia Commonwealth University, demonstrated the pinhole photography technique.

Christmas break ended, and we all returned to start a new semester and a new year. Little did we know upon returning that it would be months before we saw the green grass again.

The Freshmen entered their second semester of college, while the seniors knew this was to be their last. It was hard to adjust to new teachers and tests because of the many late nights spent "traying" on borrowed trays from the cafeteria. Because of the extremely low temperatures, we were asked to keep our thermostats as low as possible. Look again.

Bristol held its annual March of Dimes Telerama. A group of interested students spent a Sunday afternoon collecting money to donate to the March of Dimes. The money was taken to WCYB-TV station and donated in the name of the college. Victoria Wyndom, better known as Rachel Cory, a star from "Another World," accepted our donation of $76 and, in turn, agreed to have her picture taken with the group.

The basketball team, a very young one, came onto the court with not much of a height advantage. They may have been short on height, but were tall on determination.

The Freshman class worked hard to earn the money to sponsor the annual sweetheart dance. The Sweetheart Queen and her court were presented at the dance, which was held at the Holiday Inn.

Elections were held for May Court and the Alumnae Award.

Parents arrived for Parents' Weekend and were welcomed by the theme "Showboat." They were entertained by the H_20 club's "Drifting Through Dixie," and the Orchesis show "Showboat Floating Palace." Celeste Holm was our guest for the weekend, and her exceptional performance was followed by the Father-Daughter dance. Look again. We welcomed spring with a sigh of relief and said good-bye to the winter we had thought would never end. The newly formed tennis team could be seen practicing on the courts everyday. As spring break approached, talk of vacations in the sunshine echoed throughout the campus.

We returned from spring break with only eight weeks left in the school year. Instead of worrying about homework and assignments, we worried about a space on the sundeck. Country Club 101 seemed to be the most popular course on campus, and we all did our homework faithfully.

Elections were held for new Student Government and class officers. The battle for new room assignments began and in a few days, everyone knew where they would live the following year. Look again.

The honors and awards were presented on Honors Day to the chosen students. The "Outstanding Faculty" award was added to the list of others. It was difficult to study for final exams because of the longing for commencement and the excitement we knew the summer held.

The Torchlight ceremony was emotionally moving, as usual. The graduating classes passed their leadership down to the rising sophomore and senior classes.

The May Queen and her court were presented on May Day in their beautifully colored gowns. They were honored afterward with a reception at the home of the president of the college.

Commencement took place that night. Everyone celebrated!

As the sun rose, we realized that this was the day we had to say good-bye to many close friends. Tears filled our eyes as we left the campus. We knew we were taking with us memories that would last a lifetime. Look again.
